

Over the Christmas period, students need to prepare for the Modern Languages Mock Speaking exam at the end of January by: learning the set phrases, verbs, locations and adjectives on the PALMO sheet to describe a picture; and learning their answers to their chosen conversation topic off by heart. To check their pronunciation, they can type words into google translate and hear it being spoken by a French/Spanish person.