

EXAM PRACTICE 2

EXAM QUESTIONS (ALL 8 MARKS)

- 1- Explain in detail 2 general responsibilities for health care professionals
- 2- Explain in detail 2 specific responsibilities for health care professionals
- 3- discuss how multi-disciplinary working would work for a patient with diabetes, high blood pressure and a mental health problem
- 4- discuss the benefits of multi-disciplinary working for an individual with diabetes, high blood pressure and a mental health problem
- 5- discuss the benefits of multi-disciplinary working for a 17 year old teenage mum, with a newborn baby, who has just been made homeless

WHO CARES FOR WHO?

- On the next few slides you need to do some research on the internet and identify the professionals who would make up the team that cares for the individual.
- First identify the professional and then write two sentences of what their job would be to help the individual.
- Remember to consider the persons social (home) situation as well as their medical condition.
- I have done one as an example to help you

GP: will prescribe medication if needed and refer to secondary care e.g. dietician

Practice nurse: based at GP surgery. Will monitor BP readings. Can do height and weight checks and support GP

45 YEAR OLD WITH DIABETES AND HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Dietician: can help to make a diet plan to keep diabetes under control

Pharmacist: gives medication and can give general health advice. Can give annual flu jab too

17 YEAR OLD PREGNANT TEENAGER WITH
NO SUPPORT. LIVING WITH FRIENDS

78 YEAR OLD WITH ALZHEIMER'S
DISEASE AND HEART DISEASE

10 YEAR OLD GIRL WITH ASTHMA AND IS
ALSO A WHEELCHAIR USER DUE TO DISABILITY

14 YEAR OLD WITH LEARNING
DIFFICULTIES AND HEARING PROBLEM

23 YEAR OLD WITH MENTAL HEALTH:
DEPRESSION, ANXIETY AND BIPOLAR

37 YEAR OLD CANCER PATIENT, SINGLE
MUM OF 3 KIDS

39 YEAR OLD WITH DOWNS SYNDROME
LIVING IN SUPPORTED LIVING
ACCOMMODATION